

New River Valley Community Services
and Virginia Tech's Office of Multicultural Programs and Services

Proudly Present

Dr. Roosevelt Thomas

Renowned diversity expert, business consultant and author

Wednesday, April 28, 2010

9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

The Inn at Virginia Tech • Blacksburg, VA

DIVERSITY WORKSHOP AGENDA

8:30 - 9:00 AM

REGISTRATION

9:00 - 11:30 AM

SESSION I: *Getting Beyond Stuck - Taking Diversity to the Next Level

Despite good intentions and hard work, many organizations are stuck in their diversity efforts. Dr. Thomas, with 25 years of experience in the field, will challenge audience members to examine their own paradigms and to recast the meaning of diversity beyond race and gender.

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM

LUNCH (not included with registration)

1:00 - 3:30 PM

SESSION II: *Gaining Competitive Advantage through Diversity Management

As corporations and business owners strive to remain competitive and energized during these challenging economic times, they are fervently seeking untapped potential sources for enhanced viability. Dr. Thomas will examine how diversity management capability can create functional synergies, deal effectively with tensions, facilitate complex decision making, attract and retain talent and achieve full utilization of the workforce.

REGISTRATION FORM

Workshop registration fee (includes both sessions) is $99.00 per person

Please complete the form below and return with payment (make check payable to "NRVCS") to:
NRVCS, Attn: Holly Carroll, 700 University City Boulevard, Blacksburg, VA 24060

Name: _____

Business or Organization: _____

Mailing Address: _____

_____

Daytime Telephone: ( ____ ) _____

E-mail: _____

NOTE

Registration deadline is Friday, April 16, 2010

Seating is limited

Visit

www.nrvcs.org/diversity
to learn more